Registered Psychologist/ Provisional Psychologist

About CanLearn

The CanLearn Society is a not-for-profit agency that has been a recognized leader in the identification and treatment of learning difficulties experienced by children and adults for over 40 years. The dedicated professional staff provides valuable services that include family literacy programs, in-school programs, the assessment and treatment of learning difficulties (particularly learning disabilities and attention disorders), public and professional education and the provision of library and research services to the community.

CanLearn is seeking a Registered Psychologist / Provisional Psychologist.

The position of Registered Psychologist at the CanLearn Society is a professional, clinical role that involves the delivery of service to clients of CanLearn. We are looking for a contractor able to commit 2-3 days per week. CanLearn offers a flexible work environment. Weekend and weekday options are available. The Registered Psychologist / Provisional Psychologist reports to the Director of Clinical Services.

Key Responsibilities Include:

Direct provision of counselling services and assessment services to clients.

Required Qualifications:

- Masters or Doctoral degree in psychology
- Registration with the College of Alberta Psychologists (CAP)
- Previous experience working with children and adults with learning and attention difficulties
- Proficiency and experience counselling children, adolescents and/or adults
- Formal training/supervision and experience conducting psychoeducational assessments with children, adolescents and/or adults (learning, attention, social-emotional challenges)
- Excellent track record in working in a team environment
- Excellent oral and written communications skills

Apply Today!

Please send a resume and cover letter describing your interest to hbaker@canlearnsociety.ca with 'Registered Psychologist' or 'Provisional Psychologist' in the subject line. Only those candidates chosen for an interview will be contacted.

CanLearn is proud to be an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment.